

Voices of Tasmania

Code of Conduct

VERSION 1.2 July 2023

When volunteering with Voices of Tasmania I pledge to demonstrate the following Values and Behaviours and give my consent as follows:

Values

- Respect
- Kindness
- Integrity
- Positivity
- Inclusivity
- Honesty
- Trust
- Courage

Behaviours

- I will strive to be my “best self” and engage in positive action
- I will demonstrate honest and decent behaviour
- I will act in the best interests of the Tasmanian community
- I will be welcoming and inclusive of all
- I will refer to reputable sources and respect scientific consensus
- I will speak up if I feel physically or psychologically unsafe and/or I am concerned about anyone’s behaviour

Consent

I authorise Voices of Tasmania to use any photographs that include me, taken while attending Voices events or volunteering for Voices of Tasmania, and use them in articles, newspapers, website and social media.

By volunteering subsequent to the provision of this Code of Conduct, your agreement to follow the code is taken as responding: “Yes, fair enough.” If you have concerns about this code of conduct or anyone else’s behaviour in relation to the code please discuss it with your contact person or the Voices of Tasmania Convenor.